An Educative puppet show by Miss Kamini Kaushal

The 4th day of the 3rd ICFF found Ms Kamini Kaushal as the Guest of Honour of the event. She was overwhelmed when she saw the auditorium packed to the capacity. She enlightened students gathered in the auditorium with words of wisdom. Students were thrilled to witness a puppet show arranged by Ms Kamini Kaushal. It was based on her film 'Registaan Ka Jahaaz', which would be screened at a later instance at this film festival. The story revolves around a young boy who shares a strong bond with his father's camel 'Lambo Raja' who lives in their farm in the desert of Rajasthan. The film conveys a message that we should let every creature live in the environment they are born in. They displayed their appreciation of the film by applauding generously.

CMS is exerting every effort to ensure the protection and security of the world's two billion children and generations yet-to-be-born.

MA MAI BADA HO GAYA HOON

Bittoo's world is perfect. He has all his Mother's love and attention since he is the only child in the family. Till, one day, his Paradise is shattered: his Mother brings home a new little sister from the maternity hospital! Bittoo is initially unable to accept the fact that he is now No.2 in the family. That he now is expected to share his Mother's love and affection with another. And worse, he has to now learn to be a responsible Big Brother to this sweet newcomer in his life.

RAJA KA NAYAY

The movie is about four brothers who purchase the property for farming and to take care of a farm they buy a dog and allotted his legs into four parts. One night the thief came and hits the dog very badly. The one leg which belongs to younger brother gets wounded. After someday the harvested crops got burned, for that other three brothers blamed younger brother. And for justice they went to the King.

REGISTAAN KA JHAZ

It is important to let each creature live in the environment it is built for: A fish in water, a bird in trees, a camel in the desert.

Our story tells of a deep bond between a young boy and his Father's camel, Lamboo Raja, living happily on their farm in the desert of Rajasthan.

NAI CAR KI SHAAN

This story is all about friendship. About two young boys who come from different economic and social backgrounds, but become Best Buddies with each other. A new car is bought by the wealthier family. The owner's son undergoes a radical shift: he soon becomes territorial about this new acquisition and even prevents his friend from riding in the car! No wonder their friendship breaks. Fortunately the two boys are able to rise above issues they face. Issues that deal with false pride, economic differences and ego clashes.

GOPAL KI PALKHI

Friendly and loveable Gopal works for the Maharajah as his Head Chef. Not just a chef, everyone knows he is the King's pet! Not only because Gopal is a great cook, but also because he has rare intellectual bent, and a fabulous sense of humour. One day Gopal's wife complains to him that other courtiers in the King's court have their own palanquins, and are able to travel in style, she is the only one who has to walk huffing and puffing to court each day!

MY FAIRY MY STRENGTH

Eight year old Bulbul is a day-dreamer. Her teacher and all her friends are quiet distraught at her lack of concentration in class and on the play ground. Her day-dreaming nature results in her performance. Bulbul would love to be a winner too, like her best friend. Her most unusual friend. But.....! Bulbul finally does surface. With her friend's helping hand. She finds praise and self esteem in the bargain.

JHOOT

How a small lie – casually spoken to cover up a lapse, escalates into a major calamity! Chunnu, a loveable but irresponsible young boy, gets caught in a web of lies. To cover up one lie, Chunnu has to keep adding to his false statements.
